JOINING INSTRUCTIONS

Courses at DDRC are based at the Hyperbaric Medical Centre which is part of Tamar Science Park situated close to Derriford Hospital, Plymouth on Research Way.

When driving to Plymouth leave the A38 at the A386 junction following signs to Derriford Hospital. We are situated past the roads leading into the hospital. Parking is available to the front of the centre.

You need to sign the visitors' register upon entering the building. You will then be given a visitor's pass to carry while you remain in the building. As car parking is limited it would be helpful if you could inform us of your car details, if at all possible.

When contacting us please ask clearly what you need to know. You will normally be put through to a member of the training staff who will try to give you the information you require. If not then leave a message & contact number and we will get back to you.
